

Proposal No. A.11B (Salary Commission)

Ballot question

Shall the Salary Commission be composed of members not employed in government service?

Charter Amendment

Section 29.01. Organization. The salaries of all councilmembers shall be established by an independent salary commission which shall consist of seven members not employed in government service. The mayor shall appoint three members, the council shall appoint three members, and the seventh member shall be appointed by the appointed six. If there is no agreement on the selection of the seventh member within forty-five days of the appointment of the sixth member, the seventh member shall be appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council.
